

EXPRESION OF INTEREST

Solidar Suisse (former SLA, Swiss Labour Assistance) is a politically, religiously and ideologically independent non-governmental organization with its registered seat in Zurich, Switzerland. Solidar Suisse has been founded by the Swiss trade unions and the Swiss Social Democratic Party in 1936 and is committed to contribute to a socially, politically and economically just society. Currently Solidar Suisse runs over 50 projects in 12 different countries as well as awareness campaigns in Switzerland. The main areas of work of Solidar Suisse are “Decent work”, Strengthening Participation and Democracy” and Humanitarian Aid. In Kosovo Solidar Suisse is active since 1999. On 2012 initiated project KOSANA that focuses mainly on the active, informed and reflected participation of the civil society in the setting up of Kosovo’s new health insurance scheme and from 2017 will start the project implementation of Youth and Employability to establish and improve career orientation and job placement services for pupils, students and jobless young people. Through the cooperation with its partner organisations, Solidar Suisse seeks to build an alliance of like-minded organisations, respective authorities and employers in order to promote career orientation and increase the professional perspectives for young people. The second sphere of intervention of the youth employability component will be the creation of learning opportunities for practical skills. This will be achieved through better practical learning in formal vocational training e.g. internships or non-formal training courses. Solidar Suisse therefore will enforce its cooperation with employers, branch or professional organisations.
