

Are you a student in Kosovo?

Want to professionally empower yourself?

Interested in democratic developments?

You want your voice to be heard?

Join the Student Group of InformedD! :)

InformedD 2021-2024

OPEN CALL FOR STUDENTS

Solidar Suisse Kosova is pleased to invite students of all higher education institutions in Kosovo to apply to join the Student Group within InformedD Project 2021-2024.

Solidar Suisse is a Swiss non-profit organization which campaigns worldwide for decent work and democratic participation and implements humanitarian action. For more information on the Solidar Suisse organization, please click here

The InformedD project purpose is to help students to engage in opinion polls, research, surveys, policy analysis to contribute in opinion formation in Kosovo, ensure their voice is heard among policymakers and inform the public constructively based on reliable sources of information and without partisan biases. Student groups will be empowered through the involvement of partners from media, experts, national and local institutions to strengthen their skills in the field of information (research and surveys), position (development of position papers and policy briefs), and promotion (media relations, campaigns, or communication with authorities. The InformedD project is in the pilot phase. For more information on the InformedD Project please click here.

We are pleased to invite 15 (fifteen) students to join the Student Group. Selected students will be provided with different training to improve their skills on research, policy analysis, opinion forming, IT, and other skills needed for their job search and career.

Note: Students selected for this project will benefit from training provided free of charge.

Who can apply?

All students from all universities and colleges in Kosovo.

How to apply?

Click here to fill the application form

Application deadline: August 28, 2021, 16:00h